

RECALL MOVE'S LATEST START

An Executive Committee Is Named and Officers Established to Direct Campaign Throughout State Against the Governor

Another step was taken yesterday in the matter of the recall of Governor Hunt by the organization, or rather the first organization, of the forces in opposition to him. The campaign has been put into the hands of a recall committee, and offices have been established in room 225 of the Goodrich block, telephone 2825. The chairman of the committee is Senator O. S. Stapley of Mesa; Secretary, Rev. J. A. Ray, pastor of the Bethel M. E. church, treasurer, Henry Mitchell of Phoenix.

Only committees from this county have been named so far, and the work is carried into other counties, committees being named there. The committee is to have charge of the business of circulating petitions and will arrange that it shall be done at the least possible expense. The members of the committee from this county are: O. S. Stapley of Mesa, Henry Mitchell of Phoenix, N. A. Sanders of Liberty, J. A. Ray of Phoenix, C. W. Clanton of Guaymas, R. E. D. 4, L. L. Jackson, Phoenix, R. E. D. 44, J. H. Barry, Tolleson, W. R. Brasher, Phoenix, R. E. D. 2, C. Glasscock, Phoenix, R. E. D. 2, W. C. Hodgson, Chandler, president, R. D. O. Johnson, superintendent, and J. W. Stewart, Tempe, R. E. D. 2; Hans Weaver, Scottsdale; R. W. Van, Phoenix; T. W. Baxter, Wickenburg; M. P. Hubbard, Mesa; W. H. Kirk, Gilbert.

The secretary of the committee said that the idea of the reorganization of the movement was to take the work out of the hands of the politicians and make it a popular movement. Already, he said, a great deal of investigation had been conducted by some who are now members of the committee, principally in the rural districts. Those who had been in charge of the campaign have furnished over the petitions already in circulation to the committee. About 2,000 names have been secured in this county, but the committee has not learned how many have been obtained in the other counties, where so far no systematic canvassing has been made. Secretary Ray said, however, that encouraging work had been received from nearly every part of the state except Graham county.

Since last Friday, said Ray, greater interest has been taken in the recall movement and many signatures have been secured, both in the city and country.

The names of the members of the recall committee are enrolled on a document headed by a statement of the reasons for the movement against the governor. The statement is an amplification of the reasons for the recall petition, containing also additional indictments of the chief executive.

SIMS' RESIGNATION NOT A THING TO WORRY ABOUT

"I can state positively that Robert H. Sims is not going to resign from his post as superintendent of the Phoenix prison, and all statements that I am at present holding his resignation can be denounced as falsehoods."

In the above words did Governor Hunt, yesterday deny rumors which had been prevalent here for the past day or so that Warden Sims might tender his resignation if his refusal to hang condemned murderers failed to prevent an execution.

It was understood that Mr. Sims might adopt this method to cause another delay in the promised hanging, should matters reach such a point where this action was necessary.

But Governor Hunt stated that he did not hold a resignation from Sims, and that he probably would not accept one should it be tendered him, because he thought that Mr. Sims had been doing exactly right of late, and saw no reason why a successor should be named for the present incumbent.

LEFT FOR NEW ORLEANS.—J. Fisher, who has been connected with the Commercial Hotel in this city for several months, left yesterday evening for New Orleans, where he will remain for some time.

THREE IN TOILS; GRAVE CHARGE

Stolen Sweater Leads to Discovery of Bad Checks, in Turn, Disclosing Facts on Which White Slave Case Is Based

A faded old sweater, a few bad checks, a white slavery charge—the high spots in the interesting sequence of events that led yesterday to the arrest here of three persons—disclosed to county and United States authorities last night one of the most complicated cases of white slavery yet recorded here.

Ralph Linbeck, a photographer, Elmer Cox, an exotic beauty of 19, and A. S. Johnson, alias Harding, alias C. W. Williams, are in the toils, as a result of a beautifully constructed "case." Deputy U. S. Marshall Willets arrested Linbeck yesterday and Johnson and Miss Cox were secured at Wickenburg Sunday. The history of the case: Elmer Cox, originally of California, drifted to Salt Lake, and became the partner of Johnson. Their operations, of which little is known, consisted of "working the rooming houses." They concluded to go to Los Angeles, and Johnson bought the tickets, round trip ones, for which both signed. In the city of the Angels, they went broke. Johnson turned the girl over to Linbeck, who was on his way to Phoenix. Arrived here, the couple registered at a leading hotel as man and wife, and later took up their residence at lesser hostilities. Soon Johnson joined them, and, late last week, the girl, went to Glendale, where they secured rooms at a private residence.

Here is where the sweater enters the tale. After four days, the couple concluded to move on. They left Glendale, three bad checks and a landlady minus a sweater. Regarding the checks, nothing was then done, but, over the sweater, the landlady roused the police. Johnson and his partner were stopped by phone at Wickenburg, whether they had fled in a hired automobile.

On Sunday, they were brought back to Glendale and taken before Justice of the Peace Patterson, who set a hearing for Saturday. Sheriff Adams, informed of the affair, went to Glendale, and secured the persons of the runaway. In the county jail yesterday, and in the presence of Adams and Deputy Sheriff Ora Matthews, Miss Cox broke her silence and calmly said: "Well, this is some white slave case, all right."

Given this lead, Miss Matthews soon secured the whole pitiful story. The charge against Johnson was changed from passing bad checks, to white slavery, when the facts had been disclosed, and Miss Cox had redeemed the worthless papers partly with her jewelry and partly with cash.

When the party was broken up, the girl being taken to the Crittenton Home and the men to a common cell in the county jail. Miss Cox insisted on bestowing a photographic likeness on Johnson, for whom she displayed touching affection.

Linbeck, who is a young man, seemed little concerned at being in the toils of the law. He admitted to Sheriff Adams, his part in the affair. He will be held for the Arizona federal grand jury, while Johnson, for whom there is a warrant in California, will, no doubt, be returned to that district to face a trial on the basis of his introduction of Miss Cox into the state. It is thought that further investigation will lay bare sundry check operations on the part of Johnson-Williams-Harding.

Copies of a Republican story of yesterday morning were mailed out yesterday afternoon, reprinted on postcards to advise ranchers of the demonstration of sub-soiling methods, by the farm advisor. It is planned that after today's experiment on a paddled alfalfa field on the Atha ranch near Glendale, other such fields shall be sub-soiled. In the early spring, ranchers who meet today at the Atha ranch will be re-assembled, in order to note the effect on the crop of the work.

Farmers from the district between Phoenix and Glendale, one of the most notable regions of stubborn fields, will meet by motor, afoot and a-horseback today to watch the tractor pull the sub-soiler over a large alfalfa lot. The purpose is to cut through the soil at four foot intervals, so that the water may more readily find its way to the roots.

Farm Advisor Armstrong, in charge of the work, will keep books on today's job, so that he can give at first hand a close estimate of cost per acre of sub-soiling with a gas tractor.

AT THE JEFFERSON.—H. L. Smalley, New York; E. J. Fromer, Bowling Green, O.; Mrs. E. Westinger, Los Angeles; G. C. Satterburg, Los Angeles; E. G. Miller, Phoenix; Mr. and Mrs. Little.

ASSISTANT GAME WARDEN ILL.—Mrs. M. B. Craig, the courteous and efficient assistant in the office of Game Warden Willard, was absent from her post yesterday on account of illness.

LICENSED TO WED.—Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Charles V. Raggio and Nellie Best of Los Angeles; Rafael Gamboa and Virginia R. Aguilar, Tempe; Otis D. Norton and Nora Mae Trimble, and John Peter Pratt and Elizabeth Johnson of Pima.
